

Spring 2016 Advanced Topics/400 Level Courses

830:484 Language Acquisition
Professor Karin Stromswold
HLL009 MTH2 (10:20-11:40am)

Prerequisites: 830:351 (Psych of Language) or Linguistics courses: 615:305 or 615:315 or 615:325 or 615:350

An in-depth investigation of language acquisition that is informed by research in psychology, cognitive science, linguistics and neuroscience. Among the topics covered are phonological development, lexical development, morphological development, syntactic development, pragmatic development, bilingualism, learnability theory, atypical language acquisition and neurolinguistics.