

The Psychology of Diversity PSYC S - 1503 course explores the links between diversity and psychological processes at the individual, interpersonal, and international levels.

Date: June 22- August 10, 2019 (7 weeks)

Time: Tuesdays & Thursdays 6:30 - 9:30 pm EST

Location: Live Online Web Conference Harvard Summer Course using Zoom

This is a limited – enrollment Harvard Summer School course. Registration at Harvard Summer School starts March 4, 2019

The Psychology of Diversity Team

https://www.summer.harvard.edu/course-catalog/courses/psychology-of-diversity/32397?keyword=psychology&utm_source=university&utm_campaign=fef64f2d6b-EMAIL_CAMPAIGN_2019_03_04_06_51&utm_medium=email&utm_term=0_91d6fb9dd9-fef64f2d6b-5085373

To apply, submit your application as a hard copy to the psychology department at Tillett Hall (hand-deliver or mail) AND e-mail it to the Internship Coordinator, Dr. Marina Gelfand, at gelfanma@scarletmail.rutgers.edu. The last day to apply for the Fall 2019 semester is Wednesday, March 13, 2018. Early applications are encouraged.