Workshop

Explore different industries and career possibilities through the Campus-to-Careers Student Field Trip Series! During these on-site student field trips to employer locations, you will learn about professional opportunities and network with various employers. WEBSITE: <https://www.state.nj.us/corrections/pages/careers2.shtml> WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Students interested in becoming a corrections officer. The New Jersey State Correction Officer is responsible, during an assigned tour of duty, to ensure the custody, safety and care of criminal offenders confined in State correctional facilities. This field trip is open to ALL majors! Field Trips are for Rutgers-New Brunswick students only. SCHEDULE: Students will need to arrive at the Honors College, South Lounge to check-in at 11:00AM; bus will depart at 11:20AM. The site visit is scheduled from 12:30PM to 3:30PM and includes a tour of the academy grounds, class observation, and overview/presentation. The bus is expected to return to campus by 4:45PM. RECOMMENDED ATTIRE: State Issued Photo ID required. Please bring as little as possible with you. It is encouraged to bring your resume, notebook, and pen. Acceptable attire for the visit is business casual; no sneakers, t-shirts, shorts, or jeans. For questions, email internships@echo.rutgers.edu.
