Peer Mentor Recruitment
Do you know a student who would make a great living-learning community peer mentor? Ideal candidates are kind, supportive, committed to creating inclusive communities, and passionate about helping their peers be successful in all of their endeavors. In addition to being a paid position, candidates can expect to learn valuable skills, make new friends, build community, gain intercultural appreciation, and so much more. Resident Assistant Tool Kit
Resident/Apartment Assistant recruitment is here, and we want to thank you in advance for sharing this information with your students! A digital tool kit is available for you to utilize. The graphics and pre-written copy can be displayed as soon as it is possible until 11/24/19 which is the last day of our campaign. We ask that if you are able to share the tool kit materials through your respective channels (emails, newsletters, community GroupMe's) it would be of great value to our recruitment efforts. Please let us know if you have any questions regarding the campaign or the materials that are provided. You can also familiarize yourself with the recruitment process via go.rutgers.edu/rareslife. Thanks very much for your support! For resident assistant recruitment questions, please contact becomera@rutgers.edu
