

Fall 2019 Advanced Topics/400 Level Courses

830:470 History of Psychology
Professor David Wilder
TIL 242, MTh2 (10:20-11:40am)

Prerequisite: 830:101 (General Psychology)
(Jr/Sr 830 Major or permission of instructor)

This course surveys the development of Psychology as an academic and applied discipline. It focuses on psychology's roots in philosophy and physiology and on the major schools of psychology that emerged in the early 20th century in the U.S.